

CARES Conference 2022

How to bring more people with us

Kirsty Lewin – Partnership Manager, Local Energy Scotland

Naomi Crowley - SCORE Scotland Community Fridge

Nadia Shaikh – RSPB, and Right to Roam campaign, England

With Andrew Williams, CEMVO and Chris Morris, Manager,
Local Energy Scotland

The Equality Charter

- Ensuring that all of our services are accessible to everyone, with a particular focus on including those from underrepresented and/or marginalised groups.
- The Charter helps us address existing inequalities within the local energy sector.
- We encourage all CARES funding recipients to comply with the Principles of the Charter.

The Principles of the Equality Charter

- We work inclusively and fairly.
- Our staff are informed and empowered.
- We adapt our services to ensure accessible language, information, meeting venues, and to overcome cultural or other barriers.
- Our services/funding are accessible to everyone.
- We encourage/support participation from under-represented groups.

